ARIONETTE PROVES VICTRESS IN THE LADIES STAKES, WITH ANNE M'GEE SECOND.

Temaceo Defeats Glerifier in a Race the Latter Should Have Won-Brougham Takes the Opener-Escutcheon All the Way.

New Orleans, La., April 1 .- L. A. Cella's young-Arionette, again triumphed over the Corrigan filly, Anne McGee, when she won the Ladies Stakes, the next to the last stake of the local season for two-year-olds, in the easiest possible manner. The adding of Lena Lech at the last moment caused seven fairly good youngsters to compete in the Opinion was divided between the Cella and Corrigan representatives. The latter, in addition to Anne McGee, also started Elizabeth Harwood, Arionette dashed at once into a long lead and was never headed, winning with ease from Anne Mc Gee, while Lena Lech took third money.

After the finish, jockey Nicol, on Anne McGee, lodged a claim of foul against the winner, but it was not allowed. He based his claim on the interference his mount was subjected to soon after the start, when Lee took Arionette sharply across in front of the others. In all the stakes won by the Cella two-year-olds this season there has been much rough riding in evidence, for which the Cella riders have been mostly to blame, but their actions have gone unchallenged.

Today's card was a splendid one, but only a small attendance was on hand to witness racing. The sensational defeat of Glorifler in the mile and a furlong race by Temaceo was probably the chief incident of the afternoon. Glorifier appeared a certain winner after he had disposed of Pedro and First Premium, the other starters, but in the final furlong Koerner became careless and, being unprepared for Temacco's rush, his mount succumbed in the last few strides.

Brougham had no difficulty in taking a purse when he beat a good band of youngsters in the opening race which included Guy Fisher, his recent conqueror. The latter only managed to get third place, Nigger Baby splitting the pair.

Powers' poor handling of Rebel Queen, the heavily supported favorite in the second race, was resp sible for her failure to finish better than third, the purse going to Bess Ward and Shirley Rossi gaining second place.

Canada and Earl's Court had the third race between them, the former coming away to an easy victory in the stretch.

Aided by a flying start, Escutcheon showed high turn of speed and won all the way in the sixth race from the suddenly improved Saylor, on which J. H. McCormick attempted a coup. E. T. Shipp, the favorite, under a weak ride, had scant chance and had to be hard ridden to save third

RESPESS SECURES JOCKEY E. MARTIN.

Louisville, Ky., April 1.-J. B. Respess secured a contract on the services of jockey E. Martin, beginning with the first day of the meeting here next month until November, 1910. Martin is now riding at Santa Anita Park, where he is under contract for the meeting to the Pasadena stable, and has been very successful there this winter having finished first in thirty-one races to date. Respess was first attracted to Martin when he was riding at Latonia last fall for K. Spence, who took him to California.

GOOD RACING UNDER ADVERSE CONDITIONS. VIRGINIA HOME OF GWYN TOMPKINS. GOOD RACING AT OAKLAND.

Steeplechase Feature Brings Out Big Crowd Despite Gloomy Weather-Fitzsimmons Saddles Three.

Washington, D. C., April 1 .- The track was still very heavy today and the weather cloudy and gloomy. but there was a good crowd in attendance. The First of April Steeplechase was attraction enough to bring out a remarkably big crowd despite the adverse weather conditions. The speculation was good and the crowd had an up-and-down experience this afternoon, and it was principally down, excepting for a few shrewd ones who prospered owing to good stable information. They cashed on Edgely, Dan de Noyles and King of Bashan.

Greeno was a pronounced favorite in the first race, but quit badly after showing the most early speed and finished unplaced. Bob Callahan, Jr., took the lead when Greeno quit but lost the race in the last stride because Fairbrother, his rider, was caught napping, due to overconfidence.

Von Laer, a good looker and probably a better youngster than he has yet shown, found the going to his liking and easily outfooted his opponints throughout and finished eased to a canter. Rose Beaumont, running on the inside, closed a big gap and overtook Alice Navarre in the final drive. Tony S. threw McDaniel right after the start. uninjured and the filly made the circuit of the track before being caught.

The fourth race was between Dan de Noyles ssner H. to the last sixteenth, where Ragman, Madden's starter, divided them and was second at the finish.

The First of April Steeplechase, which was run last year as the Easter Monday Steeplechase, won by Grandpa from the favorite, Prince of Pilsen, from the J. W. Colt stable. The old horse showed much the most speed today and his jumping was almost faultless.

The tabulated history of the First of April Steeple

HOW THEY DO IT SOMETIMES IN ENGLAND.

Government of racing in England is more strict in some details than in this country and decidedly more lax in others. A statement by the rider of beaten horse, for instance, is given more weight than would usually be accorded it by racing judges in the United States. It is no infrequent thing for a rider to pull his mount up and canter in. His statement, if questioned, that his horse was beaten when he pulled it up, is generally accepted as a sufficient explanation. Sometimes the crowds in attendance view the matter differently and disagreeable scenes, not altogether unknown in our land, price for the right sort of jumper and be won by ensue. An illustration was afforded in the course of the Gatwick meeting last month of which London said:

"Mr. Whitaker was riding Sprinkle Me in the March Steeplechase, and it happened that his mount was favorite. The distance of the race The writer watched the race was three miles. through powerful glasses, and after the field had traversed a mile there was a cluster of four horses front, then a long Indian file, of which one of the last was Sprinkle Me, the distance separating the later from the leaders being a furlong and a half. Mr. Whitaker was sitting up in the saddle trying apparently to pull his mount up. This, as he ex plained afterwards, was, in fact, what he was intent on. Gradually, however, the horses in front began to drop back, the pace having been too hot, and it seemed to dawn upon Mr. Whitaker that Sprinkle Me had a chance, so he set him going in earnest, with the result that in the last six furlongs he made up ground hand over hand, and though the effort was made so late he was only beaten by two lengths.

"Then a similar scene occurred to that which had been enacted twenty-four hours previously at Birmingham. The occupants of the chief enclosure hurried into the paddock and endeavored to make it clear to Mr. Whitaker what their opinion regarding him was. There were some exciting moments while the jockey was unsaddling his horse, but he eventually gained shelter and comparative hospitality in the weighing room. The stewards (Mr. C. Egerton and Mr. J. H. Locke), at once asked Mr. Whitaker to appear before them and requested an explanation of his riding. Mr. Whitaker said he had £35 on Sprinkle Me, but the horse made a blunder in the earlier stages of the race and jumped so badly over the next few fences that he gave the case up as hopeless and pulled him. This explanation was accepted. 'How ought the handicappers to handicap Sprinkle Me in the future? was one of the first questions asked of Mr. C. A Egerton, who is a member of the National Hunt Committee. 'That is for the handicappers to de cide,' was Mr. Egerton's answer."

SHAW TO REMAIN IN AMERICA.

Jockey W. Shaw has decided to remain in this country this year and fulfill his contract with Christopher Sullivan, the New York politician and turfman, instead of asking for a release to go to GerMany Good Thoroughbreds of Cross-Country Fame Quartered There-Sea Horse's Bad Luck.

Washington, D. C., March 31 .- To the New Yorker accustomed to the congested streets and narrow confines of the great metropolis, a day in the country a treat indeed. It was my happy destiny to spend Sunday at the comfortable home of Gwyn Tompkins, Situated three miles from the old town of Warrenton, Va., which is but fifty-four miles from Washington. Warrenton has long been known as the home of a colony of horse enthusiasts, and Mr. Tompkins about three years ago satisfied his lifelong desire and purchased a desirable bit of property, about 100 acres in all, upon which he set to work and built the best equipped stable for race horses that I have ever seen. It is long enough to provide a seven-lap to the mile hay ride, where his hors s do indoor work when it is necessary, but the only bad month of the winter was February, and for much of the inciement season outdoor work has been the rule. The stable is supplied with acetylene gas made on the premises water from springs pumped by gasoline engines into a tank capable of holding 5,500 gallons, an ice house filled with ice gathered from his own pond, are features which caught my eye as we sauntered over the rich Virginia soil and heard the story of some of the ups and downs on the turf of this capable horseman.

A three-quarter mile track on turf, the last part of it uphill with a rise of thirty-three feet, is one of the unusual things we saw. Straight down the center of the infield is a twelve-foot wide, fenced-in corral, a furlong long, with an enlarged circle at either end, and brush jumps at frequent intervals, arranged as to work on hinges, so that young stee plechase horses can jump from the proper angles, and here Mr. Tompkins schools all his young horses destined for the cross-country game. He has for years devoted himself to steeplechasing, but is not averse to handling young flat racers, ultimately meant for jumping. One such, Tenakoe, was disqualified at Benning last year for second place, in which he was beaten out a few inches for first money, and as long odds were laid against him to win and place, you can imagine what it meant to his owner when the horse was set back to last place for a foul.

I was surprised to see at Mr. Tompkins' place the New Zealand stallion Sea Horse, for which $15,000 was paid by "Mr. Cotton," his employer, in England a few years ago a short time before the Liverpool Grand National. "Mr. Cotton," off the turf, for, it is hoped only a brief period, has long been noted as a liberal patron of cross country sport. It was his lavish expenditures which brought Sea Horse and Phil May to this country. It was contemplated to purchase the noted Leinster, but the asking price was considered unreasonably high. Commentators on the viccisitudes of racing think it hard that the great cross-country prize should not have fallen to a man like "Mr Cotton," who was willing to pay any reasonable a cast-off like Rubio, which was sold for as small a figure as $90. Such, however, is the nature of the wise few bringing off a game. Sea Horse met with an accident in a steeplechase at Saratoga three or four seasons ago when, on all form, he would have won easily but for the misfor. He struck the post of a fence with his near tune. hind foot and broke the bones in that membe The pastern is weak and nearly goes to the ground. In many respects Sea Horse was the most desirable racer for cross-country work which has ever freed On one occasion Mr. Tompkins worked him one and a half miles on the flat in 2:36. Thoma Hitchcock saw the work and said to Mr. Tompkins: "I take off my hat to the best steeplechaser in America." He ran in two races at Saratoga. one, declaration to win with a stable companion was made, as it was Sea Horse's first chase in public in America, and it was deemed prudent to give him a try-out without costing race-goers anything, as the stable was coupled in the betting. Up to the last three furlongs the stable mate, Alamansor, was winning easily, and Sea Horse was kept back under a strangling pull. But all at once the rider of Alamansor felt him going lame, the result of having struck into himself and cutting a deep yound, and then it became necessary for Sea Horse to win if he could. He was called on to close up big gap, but, though going like a steam engine at the finish, it was too late and Malden wor for Mr. Colt.

This was not so bad, but when Sea Horse met with his misfortune in his next race, it nearly sent Mr. Tompkins to a sanitarium. Now the New Zealand horse is in Virginia, after two seasons in Kentucky. Sanford Lyne has written to Mr. Tompkins to say that the get of Sea Horse are among the best in the state and is eager to have the horse back there.

About a dozen steeplechasers are now at the Virginia home of Mr. Tompkins and with the com nencement of the Belmont Park season they will be seen in public. They include Jimmy Lane, St. Nick, Loudoun Light, Motor, Selectus, Dr. Hellsworth and a few younger ones destined later on for cross-country work. Mrs. Tompkins, wife of the proprietor, is the proud owner of the five-year-old Peep o'Day horse Laneham, which seems destined to be a credit to his

BURLEIGH DEFEATS PAJAROITA THROUGH WALTER MILLER'S GOOD JOCKEYSHIP.

Crack Rider Has Successful Day, with Three Winners to His Credit-Family Club Handicap Weights and Probabilities.

Oakland, Cal., April 1.-Walter Miller rode three winners, one second and one unplaced at Oakland today. The victories of Fulletta, Boloman and Burleigh and the second and close fourth of John H. Sheehan and Blue Eyes respectively, were due solely to the champion jockey's display of good horsemanship, which was easily the outstanding fea ture of the afternoon's sport.

The chief race, the Los Gatos Handicap at six furlongs, was captured by the consistent Burleigh, which got up to win in the very last stride of what seemed a hopeless stern chase of the favorite Pajaroita from the beginning. The latter, though, the best horse in the race, was the victim of his negro rider's weakness. It is a well-known fact that Lycurgus is suffering from a diease which incapacitated him from riding.

Fulletta scored in one of the long-distance races and was the only favorite on the card to reward his backers. The speculatively inclined portion of the 5,000 present were heavy losers on their ring operations in consequence.

The weights for the Family Club Handicap, to be decided next Saturday, were announced by Martin Nathauson today. Montgomery has been assigned top weight at 133 pounds. Rapid Water comes next with 126, but as neither of these two is on the ground, Rubric at 112 pounds, will head the list of probable starters. Logistilla, if the expected improvement in form materializes, seems the winner, with only 106 pounds up.

J. S. Hawkins' horses, including Wing Ting, Ovelando and seven others were shipped to Louisville today.

Former jockey J. Daly departed for Europe last Monday, where he expects to resume riding.

W. H. Dubois has engaged jockey Eddie Lynch to ride for him during the coming season in the ast for a retainer of $4,000, with additional pay for winning and losing mounts.

Dally was the best-supported winner of the day, a cisively, taking the track at flag fall and maintaining the lead throughout.

S. C. Hildreth has shipped fourteen horses to New York. Eighteen in the Hildreth barn will be campaigned at Oakland and Seattle by John Lowe. P. T. Chinn shipped his best horses to Sheepshead Bay day. He has sold Senator Beckham, Cardinal and Strat Martin and will leave General Haley

KENTUCKY BREEDERS IN DESPONDENCY.

Lexington, Ky., April 1.-This has been a blue day for the breeders and owners of thoroughbreds in Kentucky. To their anxiety over the probable voting on the Agnew-Hart bills in the senate at Albany is added information from Washington to the effect that the bill which will wipe out the sport at Benning is in grave danger of passing the senate Colonel Milton Young, in the name of the State Racing Commission, sent a telegram to Senator McCreary this noon, urging him to vote and use his influence against the bill.

GNEW-HART BILLS LAID OVER.

Albany, N. Y., April 1.-Nothing decisive was done with the Agnew-Hart bills today and after con-siderable debate, it was discovered that they will have to be reprinted on account of some errors in phraseology. This led to their being laid over and no action is probable before the middle of next Winner—Blk. h, by Fatherless—Network (trained by J. Fitzsimmons).

Went to post at 4:00. Off at once to a bad start. Won driving; second and third the same. Workman was in the deep going throughout and raced Belle of the Bay into defeat, but tired and just lasted long enough to withstand the game final rush of Clements. The latter lost several lengths on the stretch turn, but finished fast and would have won in a few more strides. Belle of the Bay showed superior early speed, but failed to stay. Beggarman had little chance at the start. Merry Man was always outrun. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—73858 Neoskaleeta, 103; 73858 Bobbin Around, 91; 74034 Battleaxe, 110; 73858 Higgin-botham, 105; (73961)Ferrylanding, 93; 73906 The Shaughraun, 101; 72583 Saltram, 91; 71450 Scarecrow, 107.

Overweights-Merry Man, 1 pound. 74037 FOURTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (38000—55%—2—113.) $500 added. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $440. Selling. Net value to winner $440.

with the victories of St. Jude for "Mr. Cotton," but these are only a few of his many cross-country winners. He developed Can Can many years ago. In 1898, just ten years ago, luck was against him, and he had one little mare called Frond. The story of how she won her first race at one of the Canadian tracks, the privations which her owner had undergone for some time before this good luck came to him, would make a column. Suffice it to say that a friend went to New York and won $12,000 on Frond on joint account. Mr. Tompkins drew the amount of the purse, handed to his trusting "head lad" sufficient money to pay outstanding accounts, then we'll have breakfast," said this friend to the horseman. "Not on your life," was the quick response, "breakfast first and the bath later." And such a You in Chicago are well aware consistent little.

consistent little mare Frond proved to be. She gave Tompkins a new lease of life. Now, ten years later, he is the happy, contented owner of a perfectly appointed home, the occupant of a house fitted up with all the modern appliances of civilized life, the owner of a stable of horses whose earnings average $15,000 a year and sufficiently master of himself to "This is good enough for me for the balance say : of my days."

Mr. Tompkins is a believer in natural methods in training. He never worked Lavator a longer distance than a mile and a quarter at his best speed, yet he was the most perfectly trained horse to go three miles over cross-country, with the pace hot all the way, that we have seen of late years. A long time ago he traded the broken down Hindoocraft for the little mare Ballyhoo, since famous as the dam of the Futurity winner, Ballyhoo Bey. "She had been run down in flesh," said Tompkins, "and so for sixteen days I myself led her by a halter all over the green fields at Saratoga, wherever she could get a bibble of rich grass. On the seventeenth day I won a good race with her, and in fact won three races out of four.'

He did not say so, but I think that the ambition of Mr. Tompkins' life is to go to England as trainer for his good friends, Messrs.Gwathmey and Weld, out a desirable Grand National candidate, and train him in his own way. I feel certain that he could improve on some of the cast-iron methods of old-J. J. Burke. time trainers.
